On June 8th, 2022

Aranui 5 is considerably relaxing its modification and cancellation conditions on all its voyages in 2022 and 2023. This applies to both old and new bookings, and will particularly reassure clients facing Covid-19 issues:

- 31 days or more prior to departure: reservations may be changed/rescheduled without penalty, with a possible fare adjustment. In case of cancellation, the usual cancellation conditions will apply.
- 30 days or less prior to departure: loss of the full amount of the cruise, unless exceptional Covid circumstances*

*In the event of a passenger's inability to travel due to exceptional COVID-19 circumstances for the following reasons, we will allow rescheduling to a future sailing with the same itinerary and cabin category on availability basis. Should a 2022 sailing, including fully paid reservations, be postponed until 2023, the 2023 rates will apply. Any rescheduling to a different itinerary or cabin category, the corresponding published rate will apply. Travel must be completed by 12/31/2023.

The exceptional COVID-19 circumstances are:

- A lockdown in the client's country of residence
- A lockdown in French Polynesia
- The inability to travel to French Polynesia due to the closure of borders
- The inability to travel to French Polynesia for a traveler whose COVID-19 test administered within 2 days or 24 hours preceding the international flight was found to be positive
- The inability to travel within French Polynesia for a traveler declared positive during the stay.
