USHUAIA

On the doorstep of Tierra Del Fuego National Park and the shores of the Beagle Channel, Ushuaia is the perfect escape into Argentine Patagonia. Its rural landscapes yield a wealth of outdoor activities, while the city itself is full of intrigue.

A busy port and adventure hub, Ushuaia is a sliver of steep streets and jumbled buildings below the snowcapped Martial Range. Here the Andes meets the famed Beagle Channel in a sharp skid, making way for the city before reaching a sea of lapping currents.

As you probably won't visit this place very often we have gathered some personal recommendations. These are our tips on the best things to do in Ushuaia, whether you're an adventurer, a history-lover or a bit of both.

ENJOY YOUR STAY!

NATURE & HIKES

---

The stunning nature and surroundings of Ushuaia offer a great opportunity for hikes. To get the best experience possible we recommend going in to nature with a professional guide. If you prefer to hike on your own we recommend to prepare yourself well, bring good gear and food & drinks for on the way and stay in the areas of Glacier Martial and Laguna Esmeralda.

There are many beautiful sites to see, mountains to hike and lagunas to visit. We have handpicked a selection of local guides that can show you around these areas.

To make the most out of your experience in Ushuaia we recommend going on a tour with a local guide such as BAGUEANOS, the family owned business or IGNACIO ALLENDE. Depending on your interests and wishes you can also have a look at the tours & expeditions of Freestyle Adventure.

TOP 6 PLACES TO SEE

01 TIERRA DEL FUEGO NATIONAL PARK

Ushuaia is the gateway to Tierra Del Fuego National Park, a maze of forestland, lagoons, mountains, glaciers and waterfalls.

03 ISLA MARTILLO

If you want to see penguins in their natural habitat, then you'll have to head to this island for one of the must-do activities in Ushuaia.

05 THE WATERFRONT AT SUNSET

Ushuaia is built on a slope that leads down to a long waterfront on the Beagle Channel. By the water's edge, a long coastal avenue stretches the width of the city alongside Avenida Prefectura Naval Argentina.

This promenade is lovely to walk along at any time of day, but it is especially pretty at sunset.

As the city faces south, the sun descends over the mountains of Tierra Del Fuego National Park, casting an atmospheric light onto the water.

02 LAGUNA ESMERALDA

Visit this spectacular, blue-green glacial lake by trekking there along a muddy trail to get there.

04 GLACIER MARTIAL

You'll have amazing views of the city, mountains, and the Beagle Channel as you pass streams and wooded areas until you reach the end of the trail just below the glacier.

06 LES ÉCLAIREURS LIGHTHOUSE

Perhaps the most iconic image of Ushuaia is Les Eclaireurs Lighthouse, or the 'Lighthouse at the End of the World'. It stands on a small rocky island in the Beagle Channel some five nautical miles east of the city.

The 11-metre-high brick tower is characterised by its red and white stripes. It is nearly a century old and still operational.
